Dear Andrew,

I am so glad to hear that you will visit Taiwan in June, and my family all welcome your coming. I've been making a schedule for our trip recently, and I can't help but to introduce a very popular tourist attraction to you now. Liuho Night Market, which is located in Kaohsiung, appeals hundreds of visitors every day. The reason why it is so famous is that it provides not only a variety of food but also a great number of souvenirs which represent local specialties. Let's talk about food first, what's the most attractive is the pineapple cake. Due to its fascinating sweet and crispy taste, it's hard to stop eating it after the first bite. If you are seeking for drinks, papaya milk is an excellent choice, because it is fresh as well as healthy. What's more, you can try snake soup if you are brave enough. Though it sounds strange, I ensure its wonderful taste won't make you disappointed. There are also lots of souvenirs such as postcards and decorations. They are all made in Taiwan, thus, they are very beautiful as well as elaborate. In addition, the Formosa Bullivard station, which is known as the second pretty station in the world is just near the night ^{market}. I'm sure the ceiling of the station, which is designed by a world-class designer, will impress you a lot. I am looking forward to seeing you, and I believe that you will have a good time in Taiwan.

Sincerely,

Stacy
