Dear Grandma,

I received your gift a few days ago. What a surprising present! It was a photo album with my pictures on it. When I opened it, all beautiful memories came to me and flashed through my mind. I still remember the scene of one of those pictures. It was when I was a little kid, I was forced to perform on the stage. It was a great nightmare to me because I had stage fright. I was fervently praying that I could become invisible, and it was you that kept encouraging to be brave. Moreover this picture was taken with my awkward face that I've ever had. It's truly funny to retell all the valuable memories in my life, and I really appreciate that the album was kept in a really good condition.

By the way, my graduation is going to be held on June eleventh and it's going to start at ten in the morning. The location is in our school auditorium. I'm looking forward to seeing you on my graduation. Thank you again for the unforgettable gift!

Sincerely,

Jamie
